CORPORATE WORK:

TRANS-GLOBAL

Nestle Management Conference
Creative and flexible set designs for conferences in locations around the world, including Brazil, Singapore and the US, for several thousand Nestle management staff.

Producer: Mary Madigan
Company: Innovision

GLOBAL CREATIVE CONFERENCE

McCann-Erickson
With the aim of encouraging interactivity and creativity amongst the participants, Simon was responsible for the conversion of an aircraft hangar at Berlin Tempelhof Airport into an innovative and spectacular 'theatre in the round'. He also designed and produced supporting events outside the conference centre in various local venues.

Producer: Mary Madigan
Company: Innovision

INTERBREW

World Management Convention

Producer: Mary Madigan

Company: Innovision

A large event, spanning three locations for 300 senior management. Working on a Victorian theme Simon created sets inspired by the Great Exhibition of 1851 and the brewing heritage of the UK; spanning venues from a large country mansion to London's modern Cabot Hall Conference Hall.

NEW YORKER MAGAZINE EVENT

Condé Nast

Using Glasgow's historic Old Fruit Market as a venue, Simon designed sets for a management event around the theme of the industrial revolution and Glasgow's industrial heritage.

THEATRE:

Simon studied Theatre Design at the Slade School of Art and Central St Martin's School of Art and Design. His extensive credits as designer include 'Antony and Cleopatra' with Vanessa Redgrave, 'Les Liaisons Dangereuses' in Zürich with Peter Wood, 'The Dearne Valley Opera' with Stephen Dexter, 'Fourplay' at the Lyric, Hammersmith, 'Song of an Honorary Soulman' as a national tour, and 'Pal Joey' at the Edinburgh Festival. He has worked for the RSC, De Nederlandse Opera, Scottish Opera, Houston Grand Opera and The Royal Ballet, amongst many others.
